

REVILLA ENGLISH: JUNIORS AND SENIORS
SEMESTER A:
AMERICAN LITERATURE, A SURVEY & THE THESIS ESSAY

The textbooks for this course are: PRENTICE-HALL LITERATURE: THE AMERICAN EXPERIENCE; and WRITER'S INC. There are 18 (eighteen) sections of work to be completed, none of which can be deleted, omitted, chopped out, or made to disappear in any way. All of the work is sequential, building upon previous work, and therefore is all-important.

Please see the teachers involved in this program for further information and guidance.

*ALL work in a section must be completed, assessed and turned in before a test (or other assessment, like an essay for example) can be taken and a grade administered for the section on which you are presently working.

Keep all original writing. All assigned compositions need to be done per the basic writing process: pre-write, write, and write again, final draft.

*ALL tests and assessments must have at least 80% accuracy or achievement level reached. If you are not able to achieve this, more instruction and work will be done until you can.
