

The Ketchikan Community Partnership on Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) presents:

“Breaking the Cycle”

A Training, Conference, and Community Dialogue

SAVE THE DATE

Free and Open to the Public

Speakers to Include:

Genevieve Casey
Morgan Fawcett
Marcel Gagnon and Kee Warner
among others

For more information:
Danielle Ludwigsen
dludwigsen@kictribe.org
(907) 228.9493

Sunday, February 19th through Tuesday, February 21st

Sunday 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm at Southeast Alaska Discovery Center – documentary followed by speakers talking about the lived experience of FASD – refreshments provided

Monday 8:30 am - 4:00 pm at Ketchikan High School – speaker presentations will focus on describing the physiology of FASD and related signs and symptoms, increasing educator effectiveness with FASD population, and transitioning from school to the real world; panel discussion will include parents, teachers, and those affected by FASD

Monday 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm at Ted Ferry Civic Center – speaker presentation will focus on legal issues related to FASD; panel discussion will include community members with focus on enacting social change regarding FASD – light dinner provided

Tuesday 9:00 am - 1:00 pm at Ted Ferry Civic Center – panel discussion with goal of creating community interagency action plan – breakfast and lunch provided

Interagency support from: Ketchikan Indian Community, Ketchikan Gateway Borough School District, Community Connections, Ketchikan Gateway Center for Human Services-Akeela, Ketchikan Wellness Coalition, Southeast Alaska Independent Living (SAIL), and Ketchikan Public Health